

March 28, 2022

To All Team Captains:

Please read over the copy of the Mine Rescue Rules. We would appreciate any input you may have regarding the rules. At the captains meeting on Saturday, June 25th, you will have the opportunity to offer your ideas on changes, additions, or other comments.

The Mine Rescue Program is important to RMMI and to the teams that attend. We continually try to improve by adding additional program content. When everyone involved is on the same page it becomes a win-win situation and accomplishes the goal of promoting educational programs for our participants.

We have enclosed the pages from the registration brochure that pertain to the Mine Rescue program.

Please copy the registration page and the waivers for each team member. It is much easier to fill in the team information on one registration sheet and then copy it for each member.

As soon as possible, we will need back:

- A waiver from each MR participant
- A registration form from each participant
- The control sheet filled out by you listing each participant, in alpha order.
- Payment for the team and any additional checks for family members if paid individually.

Thank you for your time and we look forward to seeing you in Snowmass, CO.

RMMI MINE RESCUE EVALUATION

GENERAL RULES

1. Each team shall be composed of their specific organizations Mine Rescue number but in no case shall exceed 10 members and one alternate.
2. Each team member must wear a protective hat (complete with chin strap), safety shoes, and safety glasses. Each team member should have leather gloves, latex gloves, a pocket mask, a safety lanyard, and an NFPA approved seat harness.
3. Team members may carry any personal equipment that they deem necessary. However, the equipment must be evenly distributed among the team members and must not be so cumbersome as to create a hazardous situation for any team member. Recommended equipment can be found under rule #22.
4. Each team must supply its own equipment to complete the problems. No equipment will be supplied by the evaluation committee.
5. Prior to evaluation, teams will meet with the officials for an explanation of the rules and the rotation of the teams. Only the team captains will be allowed to ask questions of the officials during the briefing.
6. All team members will report to the staging area before the start of the valuation in a location assigned by the evaluation committee.
7. A maximum time limit will be set for each problem. Failing to complete the entire contents of any problem may result in points lost. Scoring will be given only on that part of the problem completed. The team may not be allowed to finish the problem in order to stay on schedule. If safety issues encountered during a problem result in simulated “death” of a team member, the 10 points available for safety will be lost.
8. Upon completion of the problem, the team will pick up any equipment used and remove it from the site.
9. The evaluators will collaborate their observations and yield a single score that will be discussed with the team immediately following completion of each problem.
10. A Review Committee composed of the RMMI Evaluation Co-Chairs and an Evaluator will be established. The purpose of this committee shall be to review any questions or exceptions that a team may have regarding the way the team was scored in the evaluation. The team captain will have one hour from the time of the completion of that problem to request, in writing, a review of the way his or her team was scored on a specific component of the problem. The request for review shall state the specific component in contention and why the captain feels that a review of the scoring is valid. The request for review shall be submitted to a Co-Chair who shall, as soon as conveniently possible, convene the Review Committee. The Review Committee shall review the scoring in only the component identified and, based on this review, shall have the authority to adjust the points either in favor of or against the team. In all cases, the decision of the Review Committee shall be final.
11. All evaluators have been appointed by the RMMI Task Group and have been determined to be proficient in the areas that they will be judging.
12. Decisions of the evaluators and the Co-Chairs will be final, with the exception of a review request by the team captain.
13. The Evaluators and the Co-Chairs reserve the right to halt the evaluation due to extensive delay, lack of safety precautions, or impractical rescue methods. If a team is allowed to resume, they will not be penalized for any time taken to make a decision.

14. If time is stopped by the Evaluators to check a procedure or correct a procedure, all work by all team members must stop during this period. If correction to a procedure is required, it can only be done after time has been reinstated.
15. All evaluation officials shall be provided with some means of identification. Only designated officials shall be allowed to communicate with teams performing or waiting their turn to do so.
16. The safety of all team members, patients, and observers must be maintained at all times.
17. A safety or belay line, in addition to the main line, is mandatory for all “live” loads (patients or rescuers).
18. The evaluation will be held regardless of weather.
19. The evaluation will be held over a three-day period in which all teams will complete a number of scenarios/problems as well as compete in the Mine Rescue Rodeo.
20. Problems shall be designed to demonstrate practical knowledge and skills that all mine rescue personnel should possess.
21. The problems shall be representative of emergencies that one would expect to find in a surface mining operation. (An underground scenario may be included depending on location of the evaluation.)
22. Teams must furnish the following equipment:
 - Medical equipment necessary to perform adequate patient care at the First Responder level (simulation of patient care will not be accepted; oxygen, bandaging, moist dressings, etc.)
 - Equipment that will facilitate the raising, lowering, or transferring of a team member or patient from one level to another.
 - Two (2) fully charged self-contained breathing apparatus with two (2) fully charged spare cylinders.
 - Equipment to test for oxygen deficiency and Lower Explosive Limits.
23. All team equipment will be inspected by evaluators prior to the evaluation. Compressed gas cylinders should have current hydrotest dates and all equipment should be in good condition. Teams should be prepared to furnish information on any of their equipment that the judges might have questions about.
24. Team members must operate under the same restrictions as they would on a mine site. Teams will be required to adhere to all sections of the Code of Federal Regulations that apply to surface mining, confined space entry, and bloodborne pathogens.
