Rocky Mountain Mining Institute

ENGINEERING SCHOLARSHIP CRITERIA

The following are the scholarship criteria. Each applicant MUST be:

1. Enrolled full-time in a four-year degree program and in good standing at the time of selection;
2. High School students are not eligible to apply. Applicant must be enrolled and attending a college or university as a full-time student
3. Pursuing a degree in a mining-related field or in the engineering disciplines such as mining, geology, mineral processing, metallurgy, electrical, mechanical and environmental; and,
4. Have an expressed interest in mining as a career path.

Scholarship selection is managed as follows:

1. The Rocky Mountain Mining Institute will distribute scholarship applications to interested academic institutions; applications are also available on our website (www.RockyMtnMining.org). Applications will be accepted only from students meeting the scholarship criteria.
2. Applications will be reviewed and rated by the Scholarship Committee. Interview of top candidates may be conducted.
3. The scholarship is annual and may be renewed for up to three consecutive years, provided that the recipient is still a full-time student in good academic standing. It is the recipient's responsibility to reapply each year, utilizing a simplified renewal application.

Scholarship presentation is handled as follows:

1. The scholarship is presented to the recipient at the Institute's annual conference, conducted annually in June. The winners will be guests of RMMI, with an all-expense paid trip to attend our conference to receive their award.
2. The monetary value of the scholarship is sent directly to the college or university to be used as tuition credit for the winner. This money will not be sent directly to the recipient due to Federal mandates. The scholarship is valued at up to $5000 over a three-year period ($2000 for initial application, $2000 for first renewal, and $1000 for second renewal).

Application deadline is March 1, 2027. No applications will be accepted after that date. Interviews of prospective candidates will be conducted in March. Scholarship winners will be selected and notified in April.

Please contact the RMMI office at 303/948-3300 if you have questions regarding the scholarship program. We appreciate your interest.
